Newborn Identification Tags

Conf-ID-ent™ newborn identification tags are ideal for barcoding your smallest patients. Their unique dual-sided design and adhesive-free strap features a flat surface that provides ease of scanning in any position without disturbing the patient.

Conf-ID-ent™ newborn identification tags feature super soft materials with rounded corners making them gentle on your most sensitive patient's skin. The non-removable liner makes the tag extremely durable and facilitates excellent first time scan grades.

Conf-ID-ent™ newborn identification tags attach to any wristband making them the most versatile barcode solution for your infants.
